Oktoberfest Meet August 18, 2014

There will be bands inside the club along with a beer wagon and pastry. No food in the kitchen this year.

We will have Jagermeister and about 20 case of wine will be on consignment.

Klaus has looked in to getting plastic strips to have over the door to help cut down on the utility's cost while the door is open. Cindy MacBurney made a motion to purchase the plastic and Chuck MacBurney 2nd it, all approved.

There will be money runners throughout the day.

The Information Booth will be selling items on consignments.

The kid's rides are being switched with the beer garden.

The Club is looking for sponsors to help with cost.

Polaner and Kopling will be loaning umbrellas, tables and chairs.

We will have people to clean up, straighten up the club and get things ready for the next day,

Members can eat for free volunteers will get 1 main item and 2 sides and 2 beer tickets

Both members and volunteers will have badges. Members from other clubs will get in free and will have a few beer tickets.

We need volunteers for parking

The electric has been done in the kitchen and everything is on its own circuit.

If you take passes, please place your initial on the back of them.

Karl Giese has made the suggestion of booking Franz Klabber for next year Oktoberfest since it will be the 50th anniversary.
